PRESTONFIELD HOUSE

A DOG'S LIFE

How one acclaimed hotel group is pulling out all the stops to offer the perfect getaway for you and your furry friend

SERVICES INCLUDE BLUEBERRY FACIALS AND TEETH CLEANING

This autumn discover PoB Hotels, a distinguished collection of properties across the British Isles, offering unparalleled elegance and historic charm for stays with your faithful companions. From the opulent Prestonfield House in Edinburgh to the tranquil Glenapp Castle on the Ayrshire coast, each property provides bespoke accommodation and amenities designed for an unforgettable dog-friendly experience.

PRESTONFIELD HOUSE

Step into a world where opulence, theatre, and luxury converge at Prestonfield House, a unique 5-star hotel positioned in one of Edinburgh's most exquisite historic buildings from the 17th century. Here, guests can indulge in unparalleled comfort without leaving beloved pets behind. With 25% of guests bringing their dogs to Prestonfield House, the team will ensure that furry friends feel just as pampered as their owners.

Situated within 20 acres of lush gardens and adjacent to the breathtaking Arthur's Seat, Prestonfield House is the ideal retreat for those looking to explore Edinburgh with their furry companions. The city centre is just a bone's throw away, making it convenient to enjoy urban adventures and countryside tranquillity. At Prestonfield House, every detail is designed to ensure owners and their dogs have an unforgettable stay, surrounded by luxury and steeped in history. Experience the unique blend of elegance and pet-friendly hospitality that sets this hotel apart.

GLENAPP CASTLE

Glenapp Castle is a 21-bedroom castle tucked away on the breathtaking Ayrshire coast, Scotland. The castle is hidden away in 110 acres of stunning gardens and local woodland. Guests will find themselves getting lost within the Castle's extensive grounds or escaping to the majestic Scottish countryside for long walks and beautiful views of Ailsa Craig and Northern Ireland - it really is the perfect dog-friendly escape!

All furry friends will receive a welcome pack of specially selected doggie treats, bedding and bowls for both food and water. Glenapp Castle can even arrange a dog sitting on request, for those who want to take part in one of the 70 indoor and outdoor activities on offer. Glenapp Castle has three spacious dog-friendly rooms at the castle, all of which are on the ground floor with access to the gardens outside. The hotel doesn't allow dogs in the castle restaurant or the drawing room (where food is being served), but dogs are more than welcome to explore the grounds and take a swim in the glen. Guests can also take their dog along to the star-gazing activities on offer at the hotel or wrap up in a warm blanket for a magical evening beneath the stars. The area has some fantastic hiking trails - perfect for long dog walks, including the Ayrshire Coastal Path.

HOMWOOD HOTEL & SPA

Located within 20 acres of beautiful gardens, Homewood Hotel & Spa is a superb dog-friendly destination just outside Bath, Somerset. Offering privacy, serenity, and luxury, it is the perfect retreat for travellers with their furry friends. Upon arrival, dogs receive a Woof Box filled with Lily's Kitchen food, treats, and a ball, along with dog beds and bowls. The hotel has a dog agility zone to keep pets active and entertained. Set amid lush greenery with stunning views of the Avon Valley, it's an ideal spot for pets to play before guests indulge in a delightful dinner.

Homewood offers pet care services, including dog-walking and dog-sitting, allowing guests to explore Bath while their pets are well cared for. Dogs receive regular breaks, meals, and mental stimulation.

Homewood also provides grooming services, offering both full grooming and bath with blow-dry options. Additional services include blueberry facials and Emmi-pet tooth cleaning, with a pick-up and delivery service available for convenience.

THE ATHENAEUM HOTEL

Experience award-winning luxury for owners and their dogs alike at The Athenaeum Hotel in Mayfair. Standing proudly in the heart of Mayfair since 1850, this Art Deco beauty offers a blend of historic charm and contemporary glamour. Located opposite Green Park, The Athenaeum Hotel is the perfect destination for a luxurious family break, including four-legged friends.

As pets have become accustomed to constant companionship, they have reinvented their dog offerings to ensure the whole family enjoys a luxurious stay. With the VIPUP Package, priced at £35 per dog per night, pets will enjoy a comfortable dog bed, delicious treats, and an Athenaeum dog bowl with no restriction on size. To make the experience even more memorable, guests' furry friends will take home a fetching Athenaeum bow tie and a range of tasty treats.

BAILIFFSCOURT HOTEL & SPA

Charming medieval architecture, a spa-inspired by local Sussex hurns, and 30 acres of private parkland leading to the beach make Bailiffscourt Hotel & Spa in Sussex a perfect destination for dogs. They are spoiled for choice here, with opportunities to explore the extensive grounds, take a dip in the sea, run along the beach, or curl up by the fire.
